Critical Thinking - Cambridge

However, the most important thing about Dewey's definition is in what he says about the 'grounds which support' a belief and the 'further conclusions to which it tends'. To express this in more familiar language, he is saying that what matters are the reasons we have for believing something and the implications of our beliefs. It is no

Interlude: Thread API - University of Wisconsin–Madison

Let's look at an example in Figure 27.1. Here we just create a thread that is passed two arguments, packaged into a single type we define ourselves (myargt). The thread, once created, can simply cast its argument to the type it expects and thus unpack the arguments as desired. And there it is! Once you create a thread, you really have another
